Wondering Who's Eligible Job for Job? Corps?

For 16- to 24-year-olds*
ready to work toward a successful future,
Job Corps' free education and career training program is a great place to start.

*The maximum age limit may be waived if the applicant is a person with a documented disability.

Young people who are school dropouts, runaways, foster youth, parents, or homeless are welcome to apply.

Because Job Corps is a voluntary program, students choose to enroll in the program and may exit at any time.

A person is eligible for Job Corps if he or she meets the following criteria:

Is a legal U.S. resident; lawfully admitted permanent resident alien, refugee, asylee, or parolee, or other immigrant who has been authorized by the U.S. attorney general to work in the United States; or resident of a U.S. territory

Meets low-income criteria

Is in need of additional technical training, education, counseling, or related assistance to complete schoolwork or to find and keep a job

Mas signed consent from a parent or guardian if he or she is a minor

Has a child care plan if he or she is the parent of a dependent child

☑ Does not exhibit behavioral problems that could keep him, her, or others from experiencing Job Corps' full benefits

☑ Does not require any face-to-face court or institutional supervision or court-imposed fines while enrolled in Job Corps

 ✓ Does not use drugs illegally

Administered by the U.S. Department of Labor, Job Corps is the nation's largest career technical training and education program for low-income young people ages 16 through 24. Job Corps is a U.S. Department of Labor Equal Opportunity Employer Program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities.
